

Security Situation in France: 11/16/15

On the evening of November 13, 2015, multiple attacks took place in Paris at the Bataclan concert hall, near the Stade de France stadium, and at restaurants in central Paris.

All students on International Academic Programs (IAP) study abroad programs in France are safe and have been accounted for. Student safety is of the utmost importance to International Academic Programs and the University of Wisconsin-Madison. We will continue to closely monitor the situation.

International Academic Programs (IAP)
University of Wisconsin-Madison