

Security Situation in Brussels: 3/22/16

Three explosions went through Brussels, Belgium on March 22nd at the airport and a subway station.

All students on International Academic Programs (IAP) study abroad programs in Belgium are safe and have been accounted for. Student safety is of the utmost importance to International Academic Programs and the University of Wisconsin-Madison. We will continue to closely monitor the situation.

International Academic Programs (IAP)
University of Wisconsin-Madison